

The Gulf Coast Football Officials Association along with the Florida High School Athletic Association is supporting the fight against Cancer. Tonight's officiating crew is showing their supports for the "Calling for a Cure" campaign by using pink whistles during the designated week of October 20-25.